A Special Invitation for Aerodigestive Society Members

On Wednesday, November 3, 2021, 8:00 am - 5:15 pm, at the Gaylord Opryland Hotel in Nashville, TN, NASPGHAN will be hosting a Single Topic Symposium: Pediatric Aerodigestive Medicine: Advancing Collaborative Care.

The objective of this program is to share the structure of a multidisciplinary approach in the diagnosis of both common and rare aerodigestive disorders, while providing state of the art updates on the management of congenital and acquired aerodigestive diseases, and highlighting the important role that the non-physician providers of the multidisciplinary team offer in the care of the complex aerodigestive disease pediatric patient. We want this session to foster multidisciplinary discussions of complex cases and highlight the range of therapeutic and diagnostic options.

NASPGHAN is happy to extend our member rate for this meeting to members of the Aerodigestive Society. This is a savings of $175 off of our normal non-member rate. Because this is a special offer you will not be able to register online, but can call (9:00 am – 4:00 pm Eastern, Monday – Friday) Fax or Email your form to be processed with this discount.
